CAN YOU HELP TO MAKE A DREAM COME TRUE FOR A YOUNG GIRL THIS SPRING?

...COUNCILWOMAN GLENDA JACKSON, TRI CYA AND THE FAMILY SERVICE LEAGUE KNOW YOU CAN!

In these tough economic times, most families have to cut costs everywhere they can. At the same time, Senior Proms is a once in a lifetime affair and every young lady deserves to look and feel beautiful. Unfortunately, some parents cannot afford the expense of a brand new prom dress this year. Councilwoman Jackson, TriCYA and Family Service League will be helping young women across Huntington achieve the prom dream by collecting new or gently used evening gowns and prom dress for Junior and Senior girls in need this Spring.

Donations of new or gently used prom dresses and accessories are being accepted from...

March 15th - APRIL 14th

Tri CYA: 809 NEW YORK AVENUE,

Family Service League: 790 PARK AVENUE OR

Councilwoman Glenda Jackson's office: 100 MAIN ST, Rm 306

For more information on donating or receiving a dress, please contact Ms. Debbie Rimler at (631) 673-3303 or Susannah Mrazek at (631) 351-3270
